

In your dreams
(auteur-compositeur : Ian Scott)

If your days are full of worry and the night time leaves you sorry if you think , of the best days you can believe again always in your dreams, hold your dreams

Mrs nightmare doesn't lose she makes you sad and gives you blues but your light , will always shine
Mrs nightmare doesn't lose
she crosses the sun and the moon you find the light in wine
In your dreams hold your dreams

Close your eyes and just believe follow your soul just like the breeze the night is young so you will be deep in your thoughts so free
In your dreams, hold your dreams

REFRAIN

Hold your dreams
